INVESTIGATION INAUGURATED

BALLINGER-PINCHOT CONTROVERSY WILL BE AIRED.

Committee of Twelve Appointed With Power to Employ Efficient Legal Talent Will Carry on Probing—Views of Senator Jones.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Investigation of the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy is ordered by a joint resolution today introduced in the Senate by Mr. Jones, and in the House by Mr. Humphrey, both of Washington. As heretofore announced the provision is for the broadest kind of public inquiry, the resolution being of the character requiring the signature of the President which gives to it all the force of the general law.

A committee of twelve is to be appointed to conduct the investigation, six of whom shall be designated by Vice President Sherman and six by Speaker Cannon. Unquestionably Senator Nelson, chairman of the Senate committee on Public Lands, will head the list of Senators and this doubtless, will result in the selection as chairman of the joint committee. The scope of the investigation is outlined as follows:

"The committee is hereby empowered and directed to make a thorough and complete investigation of the administration and conduct of the Interior Department, its several bureaus, officers and employees, and of the Bureau of Forestry in the Agricultural Department, its officers and employees, touching or relating to the reclamation, conservation, management and disposal of the public lands of the United States, or any lands held in trust by the United States for any purpose, including all the natural resurces of such lands, and said committee is authorized and empowered to make any further investigation touching said department, its bureaus, officers or employees as it may deem desirable."

The authority to sit during sessions of Congress and in recesses, to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, usual to Congressional inquiries, is granted by the resolution. It is provided further that any person refusing to obey the process of the committee or to answer any question propounded shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and jurisdiction is conferred upon the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia to try and determine any such charges of contempt.

Employment of assistance, "legal or otherwise," is specifically authorized. This provision is for the purpose of enabling the committee to procure the services of able attorneys to take charge of the probing, so far as the directing of the questions is concerned. It is the intention of President Taft to have the committee name some competent attorney to conduct the case, and it is possible that both of the principles of the controversy may be represented by counsel.

It was agreed by all persons who have given close attention to the Ballinger-Pinchot squabble that the investigation should be open to the public and this is ordered by the resolution. One of the big rooms in the new senate office building will be used for this purpose.

Views of Senator Jones.

In presenting the resolution Mr. Jones said:

"The various departments and bureaus of the Government are organized to do its business in the interests of the people. Every official is but the servant and agent of the people to act for them under and within the limits of the law. The efficiency of public service depends much upon the confidence of the people in the honesty and integrity of their servants and agents.

"It is a bad commentary upon the state of public opinion that the moment a man accepts a public office he becomes a scoundrel in the eyes of many of our people and his previous life of honesty and rectitude is no warrant of official integrity. His acts are misconstrued and his motives questioned. Insinuation and innuenendoes are freely made under the guise of public welfare but in reality to foster some private interest. Popular views are taken advantage of to discredit an official, who, after investigating all phases of the subject, may reach a decision at variance with some private interest.

"Many do not stop to think how seldom have Government officials gone astray compared with their opportunities and temptations for wrong doing. In the hundred and twenty five years of our national life few of the men in high positions have been actuated by other than the highest and most patriotic motives. This should cause our people to hesitate to accept charges of base conduct against their public servants without investigation and proof.

The press and magazines of the country for several months have been filled with charges against the present secretary of the Interior and his conduct of the office he holds. These charges range from petty insinuations and innuendoes to direct charges of malfeasance and misconduct in office which, if true, show that he has most unworthily discharged his trust. A moments thought should cause an honest and fair minded man to hesitate to accept such charges against a man whose whole life heretofore has been one of the highest rectitude and against whom no dishonorable charge has ever been made in either private or public life.

"Such a man is the present Secretary of the Interior. He is over fifty years of age, an honored graduate of Williams College and a lawyer of distinction. He came to our state in 1889 and has lived there ever since. He was a Superior Judge for four years and mayor of the City of Seattle, Washington and his administration of that office has been a model for his successors. He accepted

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

Knox Plans to Make Court Judicial in Fact as Well of Theory.

Washington, Jan. 5.—With a view of making international arbitration judicial in fact as well as in theory, Secretary Knox has addressed a circular note to the powers, proposing that the jurisdiction of the international prize court, authorized in 1907, by the Hague peace conference, be extended to make it a court of arbitral justice. This note was dated Oct. 18, 1909. No answers have bene received. A statement explaining the contents of the note and reason for the proposal was made tonight by Secretary Knox. The international prize court was to be composed of fifteen judges, eight from the larger maritime countries Germany, Austria-Hungary, France Great Britain, Italy, Japan and the United States, and were to serve six years. The other judges were to be chosen from the remaining nations and were to sit for periods as determined my the maritime standing of their respective countries.

HUGHES' MESSAGE.

Opposes Income Tax Amendment to Federal Constitution.

Albany, Jan. 5.—Governor Hughes in his message to the New York legislature, which convened to day, caused much comment, especially on the portions devoted to opposition to an income tax amendment to the federal constitution. He said the power to tax incomes should not be granted in such terms as to subject to federal taxation income derived from bonds issued by a state or those issued by cities organized under a state's authority.

Hughes' recommendation for a law abolishing oral betting at race tracks was criticised by Senator Grady in a speech declaring Hughes was afraid to attack the "greatest gambling evil," Wall street. New York track owners say such a law will cause them much loss.

MUST STAND TRIAL

New York, Jan. 5.—Although Thomas C. Platt probably never will be in condition to testify Mae C. Wood, who claims he married her, must stand trial for forgery and perjury, charges based on evidence she produced and testimony she gave to support her alleged marriage. Although counsel argued in her behalf to day that the indictments should be quashed because of Platt's failure to appear, Judge Foster refused to dismiss them.

MUST GO TO PRISON.

U. S. Court Decides Against Rev. James R. Kaye.

Springfield, Jan. 5.—Notice has been received by the United States district court here that the United States court of appeals in Chicago yesterday affirmed the finding of Judge Humphrey's court in 1907, in the case against Rev. James R. Kaye, charged with counterfeiting, and the former minister must serve two years in the penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kans.

The decision ends a long legal battle in which the former pastor of the Presbyterian church in Lincoln sought to obtain his release from the charge against him.

COAL SCARCITY.

Rock Island, Ill., Jan. 5.—Owing to the coal famine the Rock Island arsenal, employing 1,700 men, closed temporarily to day. Several cities in eastern Iowa are also facing a scarcity of coal.

Huron, S. D., Jan. 5.—Wolsey, Broadland, Yale and Virgil report no hard coal and little fuel of any kind. Cavour, Wessington, Alpena and Hitchcock also have little fuel. The entire valley of the James river is under nearly two feet of snow and with a stiff wind blowing there is danger of blockade and fuel famine.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

Governor Confident Satisfactory Primary Law Will Be Enacted.

Springfield, Jan. 5.—Although there is considerable confusion in regard to enactment of a primary election law Governor Deneen to night expressed confidence a satisfactory law would take the place of the previous primary laws which have been declared unconstitutional.

The "delegate primary" bill submitted by the Cook county Republican committee was not enthusiastically received to day. The measure is said to have the backing of many federal office holders, including Speaker Cannon. Next week an attempt will be made to amalagamate the several bills into one measure.

ABANDON FREIGHT TRAFFIC.

Des Moines, Jan. 5.—When it became apparent Tuesday night that the snowfall would continue indefinitely, orders were issued by railroads throughout Iowa suspending freight traffic. Efforts have been made, however, to continue passenger traffic, although trains on all lines are from five to nine hours late.

MUST SUPPORT PARTY MEASURES

REPORTED ATTITUDE TAKEN BY PRESIDENT TAFT.

No Attempt Made to Deny Administration Witholding Patronage From Certain "Insurgent" Senators and Congressmen.

Washington, Jan. 5.—While no formal statement was forthcoming at the white house to day, there was no attempt in administration circles to deny that Taft is witholding certain customary congressional patronage from those "insurgents" senators and representatives who show no disposition to support administration measures. Taft is reported as taking the attitude that if an obligation rests upon him to give certain patronage to representatives of the party there is a reciprocal obligation upon the representatives to support the president.

A number of so-called insurgents" were out in interviews to day saying they heartily agreed with the president's legislative program and asserting that instead of using the "whip" on them, the president should use it on the leaders who in the past had opposed Roosevelt policies which Taft is seeking to enact into laws.

On the part of the president it was said to day that witholding patronage does not apply to all the "insurgents" and has nothing to do with their fight against Cannon or the house rules. Victor Rosewater, Republican national committeeman from Nebraska, one of the "insurgent" states, saw Taft this afternoon and said the president said he has not turned down recommendations of "insurgent" congressmen, but is simply preserving a statu-quo to impress them of their obligation.

Many "insurgents," it is believed, frankly told the president they would support his legislative program. There are still a few, however, who seem disposed to carry on an independent attitude and who are generaly against everything leaders of the party favor. To make their position stronger, it is said, they would be willing to ally themselves with the Democrats. It is against these "recalcitrants" that the no-patronage order has been issued and so far as Taft has concurred, it will stand until the members see fit to subscribe the principles of the party's legislative program.

SOLD BOGUS BUTTER.

Warrant Issued for Arrest of Kankakee Man.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Internal revenue inspectors here to day caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of George Granger of Kankakee, Ill., on charge of selling oleomargarine as butter. The warrant was issued by United States Commissioner F. L. Draper of Danville, after government agents had raided Granger's home at Kankakee and seized hundreds of pounds of bogus butter.

Granger, who is a brother of Rev. A. D. Granger, pastor of St. Rose Catholic Church at Kankakee, was detected when one of his customers suspected the butter and sent a sample to Washington, where it was found to be colored oleomargarine.

NOW INCONTESTABLE.

Brussels, Jan. 5.—Minister of State Beernaert today stated that while the failure of the late King Leopold to issued a decree sanctioning the marriage of Prince Albert and Princess Elizabeth, now king and queen of Belgium, might have been a theoretical violation of the constitution, the marriage was long ago accepted by the country and was now incontestable on constitutional grounds.

AGREE TO ARBITRATE.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Members of the switchmen's union representing western railroads to day agreed with the general manager's association to submit differences to arbitration under the Erdman law. A joint telegram was sent to C. P. Neill, United States labor commissioner, and Martin Knapp, interstate commerce commissioner, asking them to act as mediators. Both sides agree the finding will be final. A report from Washington says both Neill and Knapp will act.

ARREST MADE.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Capital police to day arrested Albert Ringer of Two Rivers, Wis., while attempting to see Vice President Sherman at his office. Ringer is a young man who has been about Washington for more than a year seeking to obtain imagined "rights" through Senator La Follette and the vice president and has made a number of threats against both. His sanity will be inquired into.

PARENTS YIELDED.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—The parents of both having yielded to their entreaties, William Schrenck of Milwaukee, 20 years old, and 16 year old Naomi Wilson of Wauwautosa, who eloped Tuesday and were married by a justice of the peace at Waukegan, were re-married here to night by Rev. James Rowe, a Methodist minister.

PROSPECT OF PEACE.

Managua, Jan. 5.—Managua is jubilant to night over the prospects of an early peace. President Madriz made public this evening a telegram from General Fernos Diaz, leader of General Estrada's insurgent army, saying that he was leaving Rama for Managua to discuss the situation.

BOUND OVER TO JURY.

Des Moines, Jan. 5.—Wilson D. Rich, assistant postmaster of Ames, was bound over to the federal grand jury to day on the charge of using penalty letters for private business.

BATTLESHIP MICHIGAN

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 4.—A considerable crowd gathered at the League Island navy yard today to witness the ceremonies attending the placing in commission of the mammoth battleship Michigan. The customary salute was fired as Captain N. R. Usher came aboard to assume command of the vessel. Captain Usher was accompanied by Lieutenant Commander D. F. Sellers, who it said to be the executive officer of the Michigan.

The sailors and marines, numbering nearly 600 in all, were mustered on deck to listen to the reading of the orders assigning Captain Usher to the command of the ship. At the conclusion of this formality another salute was fired, the captain's pennant run aloft and the ship's band played "The Star Spangle Banner" while the officers, crew and assembled spectators joined in three mighty cheers.

The Michigan is the first of all the big gun battleships designed for the United States navy. In appearance and armament she is distinctly different from almost all of the other battleships now flying the American flag. Her most noteworthy feature is her four great turrets, out of each of which protrudes a pair of 12-inch guns of the latest and most powerful type. These turrets, which are so arranged that every one of them can be used in a broadside either to port or starboard, are mounted on the axial line of the ship, one pair aft and the other pair forward of the superstructure.

Another peculiarity of the Michigan is the arrangement of the masts, the forward mast being on the starboard and the after on the port side of the ship. The armor belt line is eight feet wide tnd nearly 300 feet long, the thickness amidships varying from eleven inches at the top to nine inches at the bottom, while the armor that protects the magaines varies from a foot at the top to ten inches at the bottom.

The turrets are electrically controlled, while the most complete arrangement for obviating the dangers of turret explosions, flarebacks and other accidents which have caused so many disasters in the navy will be used to protect the men who will handle the great guns on the Michigan.

The ship has a displacement of 16,000 tons, and carries in addition to her battery of eight 12 inch guns, twenty two 8 inch guns and sixteen small rapid fire guns. She is also fitted with two submerged 21 inch torpedo tubes. Her engines are of 16,000 horsepower each.

MUNICIPAL CORRUPTION.

Report of Committee Appointed by Mayor of San Francisco.

San Francisco, Jan. 5.—Mayor E. R. Taylor received to day the report of the committee appointed by him October, 1908, to "investigate causes of municipal corruption in San Francisco as disclosed by investigation of the grand jury and prosecution of certain persons for bribery and other offenses against the state."

The report makes a number of recommendations, among them the following: That municipal elections be made non-partisan; names of candidates to appear on ticket without party designation; annulment of public service franchises that have been obtained by fraud; enactment of a statute compelling public service corporations to testify against themselves and that it be felony to sell columns of newspapers unless plainly marked as columns sold.

"WHITE SLAVE" TRAFFIC.

Preliminary Investigation Begun in New York.

New York, Jan. 5.—James Bronson Reynolds, an authority on sociological and immigration matters, formerly with the department of commerce and labor and now a New York lawyer, joined John D. Rockefeller, Jr., foreman of the grand jury, and the district attorney of New York to day in the preliminary investigation of the "white slave" traffic. After a conference between the three it was announced Reynolds will be made special assistant district attorney in the investigation.

Aside from inquiry in New York city, Governor Hughes recommends more drastic legislation to curb the traffic, in his annual message to the legislature to day and State Senator Timothy Sullivan, who represents the heart of the East Side, where girls are recruited, introduced a resolution demanding an investigation either to clear the city's name or convict the guilty.

HENEY CONDUCTS PROSECUTION

Portland, Ore., Jan. 5.—Everything is in readiness for beginning the trials of the famous Oregon land fraud cases, which have been hanging fire for many months. The prosecution will be conducted by Francis J. Heney, special prosecutor of the Department of the Interior, who will have the assistance of a corps of special agents and secrets service operatives. It is expected that the first to be placed on trial will be Binger Hermann, former member of Congress and Commissioner of the General Land Office.

MCFARLAND GOES ABROAD.

New York, Jan. 5.—Packey McFarland, the lightweight pugilist, sailed for Europe on the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria to-day, accompanied by his manager and trainer. He expects to engage in several matches before the London and Paris clubs.

HOUSE PASSED CANAL ZONE BILL

ADMINISTRATION PLACED IN HANDS OF PRESIDENT.

Vote on Measure Was Along Strict Party Lines—Various Features of Bill—Other Congressional News From Washington.

Washington, Jan. 5.—With Democrats fighting every inch of the way, the Mann bill providing for administration of the Panama canal zone and centralizing the government thereof in the president of the United States, passed the house to day by a vote of 119 to 102. The vote was along strict party lines. The attitude of the majority and minority on section 2 may be best described by a question propounded to Representative Townsend of Michigan, by Garrett of Tennessee and by Townsend's reply.

"Do you believe congress has any power under the constitution to confer legislative power on the president?" asked Garrett.

"Ordinarily, no," replied Townsend. "In this instance, yes. We are in Panama digging a canal and it is necessary for the president to have power to make rules and regulations of government of the zone while the work is in progress."

Representative Mann of Illinois, author of the bill, claimed precedent for delegation of such power in the executive was found in similar action by the Democratic congress at the time of the Louisiana purchase and again when Florida was seceded to the United States by Spain. The bill as it goes to the senate, authorizes the president to have complete control of the Panama canal and to appoint a director general of canal and canal zone, thus doing away with the canal commission. It invests judicial power in the zone in one circuit court and such inferior court as the president may constitute and allows an appeal to the supreme court of the United States in civil cases involving $50,000 and criminal cases punishable by death or life imprisonment. Trial by jury is granted in all criminal prosecutions for felony.

Nominations.

The president today sent to the senate the nomination of members of the new court of suctoms appeals authorized under the Payne tariff law. Presiding judge, A. C. Coxe, now United States judge of the second district; associate judges, W. H. Hunt, United States judge; J. F. Smith, former governor of the Philippines; O. M. Barber of Vermont, and Marion Davies of New York.

Also the following nominations as consules: Albert W. Pontius of Minnesota, ot Chung King, China; Louis J. Rosenberg of Michigan, at Barranquilla, Colombia; Bertil M. Rosmusen of Iawo, at Bergen, Norway; George Horton of Illinois, at Salonika, Turkey.

To Protect Women Immigrants.

Ill treatment of women immigrants, during their occupancy of steerage accommodations, resulting in some cases in gross immorality, led to the introduction today by Senator Dillingham of a bill providing for the presence of United States surgeons, immigrant inspectors and matrons on all essels carrying immigrants of emigrant passengers between the United States and foreign ports. Disclosures of bad conditions on board vessels engaged in immigrant traffic by the congressional immigration commission are responsible for the presentation of the bill.

Ready for Retired List.

Rear Admiral Kimball, now in command of American vessels on the Pacific coast of Nicaragua, will be placed on the retired list Jan. 9, on account of age. However, he will be retained in the present position until affairs in Nicaragua warrant withdrawal of American ships.

Want to Be Enlightened

"Show us why the treasury department sent vessels to search for Col. John Jacob Astor's missing sea going yacht some weeks ago?" virtually asks the house committee on expenditures in favorably reporting to day the Hardwick resolution of inquiry. The measure asks the secretary of the treasury what action, if any, was taken by the revenue cutter service to discover the whereabout of Col. Astor's yacht, and what was thus expended.

WILL BE IMMERSED.

Condemned Murderer Objects to Being Sprinkled.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 5.—George Burge, who will be hanged next Friday for the murder of his wife, will be taken from his condemned cell Thursday night to a local church and baptised.

"I don't want to be sprinkled," said the murdered, "I want to be ducked clear under."

As there is no place in the jail, the prison authorities consented that the condemned man be taken to a church in a distant part of the city. Burge was found guilty of the cold blooded butchery of his wife on the lisping testimony of his 3 year old daughter.

MARRIED ENGLISHMAN

New York, Jan. 5.—Miss Clara Boals of Chicago, granddaughter of Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) and Franklin Hamilton Benn, a wealthy English lumberman, were married to day at Trinity chapel, this city. Cody was present. The bride and bridegroom will mage their home in London.

DECLINE IN COTTON.

New Orleans, Jan. 5.—One of the most sensational declines in the local cotton exchange took place this afternoon when in an hour there was a break of 76 to 84 points, or about $4 a bale, active deliveries.

PRINCESS ALICE OF BOURBON

New York, Jan. 5.—Among the hundreds who have attended the opera recently probably none recognized among the occupants of one of the boxes a woman in whose veins courses the Royal blood of the Bourbons. The woman, who may be seen almost nightly at the opera, theatre or at one of the fashionable supper places along Broadway, is the Princess Alice of Bourbon, youngest daughter of the late Don Carlos, pretender to the throne of Spain. The Princess, with her husband, Lieutenant Lino del Prete, is spending a few weeks in New York as the guest of relatives of her husband.

Few persons have figured more prominently in the gossip of the day than has Princess Alice of Bourbon. For a number of years she and her two sisters have furnished abundant material to the chronique scandalouse of old world royalty. Several years ago her eldest sister, Donna Elvira, created a sensation by eloping with the artist, Folchi, a married man. At the time, her father, Don Carlos, issued a proclamation disowning her. Some time later one of the three sisters, Princess Beatrice, endeavored to commit suicide by throwing herself into the Tiber, in consequence of the unhappiness of her marriage to Prince Fabian Massimo.

The love affairs of Princess Alice have furnished even more material for gossip than have these of her two sisters. At twenty years of age she was married to Prince Frederick of Schonberg-Waldenberg. In 1903 she separated from the Prince. The latter charged his wife with running away with the coachman, but the story was formally denied. In 1906 the Pope annulled the marriage. The decree was granted against the Prince and in favor of the Princess, although she admitted that the boy to whom she had given birth in 1902 was not the offspring of her husband. The Princess likewise admitted that she had eloped with Lieutenant Lino del Prete, an Italian officer on the retired list and of no particular nobility. In 1906 she was married to the Lieutenant, who has accompanied her on her present trip to America.

The only brother of the Princess is Don Jaime, now a man of forty, who for some years has been an officer in the Russian army. Don Jaime is the legitimate heir to the claims of the late Don Carlos to the throne of Spain, yet he has never been considered as a claimant, and rumors that he might lead a Spanish insurrection have never been fulfilled.

BUSY WINTER FOR FLEET

New York, Jan. 5.—The officers and men of the Atlantic fleet were busy today overhauling their white duck suits and other summer clothes, for before another week has rolled around they expect to be enjoying the warm sunshine of the West Indies. For more than a month the fleet has been lying in North River, where on the several days following the recent blizzard the beautiful spectacle of the ice encrusted battleships was enjoyed by thousands from the shore.

Tomorrow the fleet will weigh anchor and under command of Admiral Schroeder will sail for Guanamamo. Upon arriving at the Cuban naval base the vessels will coal and will then begin the standardiation trials, target practice, speed contests and other features which make up the program of the winter maneuvers. The fleet will probably return to Northern waters about May 1, dispersing and going to the navy yards immediately upon returning.

WORK FOR BAY STATE SOLONS

Boston, Mass., Jan 5.—The Massachusetts legislature of 1910, which convened today is expected to make for itself an important place in the history of the state. Measures of much weight are to come before the session, chief among which are street railway and railroad problems. The "temperance" people are expected to renew their battle for Boston district option and for other legislative dealing with the liquor traffic. Organized labor will again present the 8 hour bill "on all public works," which Governor Draper vetoed last year and which played an important part in the latest gubernatorial campaign.

NO FAITH IN MADRIZ.

Genuine Reform Not Looked for by United States.

Washington, Jan. 5.—While there has been no addition on the part of the United States as to feeling toward the administration of President Madriz, it is known that dissatisfaction is felt with the new regime. Certain acts of Madriz, such as the appointment of General Toledo commander in chief of the division of the army and appointment of a Russian nihilist named Loetz, said to be a notorious adventurer, commandant of the Port of Corinto, have led the United States to believe no genuine reform is to be hoped for through Madriz.

In diplomatic circles here it is believed the United state intention is to allow Estrada to force Madriz to resign. Louis Corea, who was delegated by Madriz as his representative at Washington, called at the state department to day. There were no results, as Corea had nothing to offer in the way of improvement of conditions in Nicaragua. Corea was received unofficially.

DEPOSED PASTOR ARRESTED.

Ashland, Wis., Jan. 5.—Rev. Lutz, deposed pastor of the German Evangelical Lutheran society, was arrested to day on the charge of assault with intent to commit great bodily injury. It is alleged New Year's day Lutz went to the residence of his successor, Rev. Bloede, and at the point of a revolver, tried to keep him from preaching.

BRANDS BEAR STORY AS LIE

EXPLORER COOK DID NOT SAVE MAN'S LIFE.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 5.—A. D. Burton, an Alaskan prospector, who has just arrived from the north and whom Dr. Frederick A. Cook, according to a magazine article published some time ago, alleged he rescued from a bear, said to day that the story was untrue.

"The year of Cook's last trip I saw Edward Barril at Seward and as he was an old friend, I gave him a photograph of myself," said Burton. "Later I had an experience with a bear that came near ending my life. I was surprised when the Cook magazine article was published after he returned to this country to see in it my picture and the story of my experience with the bear. Cook told how his party rescued me from the jaws of death. As a matter of fact Cook was not within 150 miles the time the bear and I mixed."

Cook a Nervous Wreck.

New York, Jan. 5.—Another member of the Cook family—this time Mrs. Josephine Dudley, sister of the discredited explorer's wife—made a statement to night. Mrs. Dudley says Cook is a nervous wreck, unable to think consecutively and that the reason he remains hiding is he could not stand the strain of the controversy.

"We are praying," says Mrs. Dudley, "he will soon recover, so he may defend himself. Mrs. Cook is at her husband's bedside. She loves and trusts him. There has been no quarrel and there never was trouble between them about money."

BASEBALL COMMISSION.

Herrmann Declares Against "Syndicate Baseball."

Cincinnati, Jan. 5.—Straight declaration against "syndicate baseball" in the report of August Herrmann, chairman of the national baseball commission, was the feature of the annual meeting of the body here today.

The initial appearance of Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National league, as a member of the commission, was made an excuse for turning the meeting into a festal occasion. To night he was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Chairman Herrmann and President Johnson of the American league.

William Murray's claim against the Philadelphia National league club was not made public. He asserted he has a contract calling for his services as manager until the season of 1911, but that the new management of the club refuses to carry out the agreement. The commission decided the case does not belong to its jurisdiction and referred it to the directors of the National league.

Another finding declared players of the California State league, an "outlaw" organization which recently subscribed to the national agreement, must make personal application for restoration to good standing.

TO CONTROL WOOL PRODUCTION

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 5.—One of the most important features of the annual convention of the National Wool Growers' Association, which will get down to work in earnest here tomorrow, will be the report on the progress made in the gigantic warehouse scheme launched by the association more than a year ago. The report will show gratifying results, success millions of pounds of wool have been stored in the big warehouse constructed in Chicago by the association. The object of the storage system is to enable the wool growers to hold their products for better prices, thus placing them in absolute control of the production. The plan has worked out so successfully that the present convention will consider the proposal for the erection of a second warehouse in Omaha or some point farther west.

ROCK ISLAND STOCK.

Another Break Caused by Various Rumors Afloat.

New York, Jan. 5.—Reports of friction among leading interests of the Rock Island companies and rumors that Daniel G. Reid was to go abroad and that he would retire from the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation caused a break of 7¼ points in the common stock of the road to day and a decline of more than 3 points in preferred stock.

The financial district had heard much about the Rock Island since its sensational movement a fortnight ago, when it jumped from 50 to 67 and back and the matter is now the subject of investigation by the stock exchange. To day's rumors had it that serious differences had broken out among those who control the property and an open breach was hinted at. These were denied, but the enormous volume of Rock Island traded in—230,000 share at steadily decreasing values—caused misgivings, since much of the selling seemed to emanate from Rock Island brokers. Another factor was failure of directors to act on preferred stock dividends at their meeting yesterday. This stock has paid no dividends for several years.

TAFT ADDS TO FUND.

Xenia, Ohio, Jan. 5.—Taft has sent a check for $100 to President Scarborough to be applied to the fund for a girls' dormitory. Andrew Carnegie has signified his intention of donating $17,500 to the fund when a similar amount has been raised.

RESIGNATION PRESENTED BOARD

Secretary J. M. Davis Severs His Connection With the Y. M. C. A.—Position Offered to E. G. Fitzgerald—Change Was Pursuant of Policy of Retrenchment.

Announcement was made Wednesday that the resignation of Secretary J. M. Davis of the Y. M. C. A. is in the hands of the directors and has been accepted, to take effect March 1. The position has been tendered to E. G. Fitzgerald, who is at present the physical director and his answer will be given tonight.

The change will come about in the pursuance of a policy of retrenchment which the board of directors have definitely determined upon. Mr. Davis has a contract with the association for the year but was entirely willing to give up his work here and his resignation came without any solicitation on the part of the board. During his two years' term of service here Mr. Davis has devoted unlimited energy to the work of the association, for he is familiar with all departments of Y. M. C. A. development and is one of the best known workers in the state. Owing to this fact during the past year he has received a number of offers of association work in other cities at larger remuneration than was paid here. He had declined, however, to accept such offers in the belief that the local field was in the line of duty and from the fact that he and his family have enjoyed living in Jacksonville. Learning in the board's wish to reduce expenses in some way or other and realizing that the directors do face a somewhat serious financial condition, Mr. Davis immediately sent in his resignation.

Mr. Davis, as an aid to the board of directors, has outlined an expense budget for the coming year which gives his idea of the work the association should do. Another budget he has outlined makes clear what can be done in the line of running the association with reduced expenses. The board has adopted the reduced budget suggested or at least will follow that line of action in contracting the year's expenses. In passing it may be truthfully said that Secretary Davis is a man of high character and his influence in the community has been always for good. His going will be a loss to Jacksonville and to the local association.

The directors have planned a banquet for Thursday evening, Jan. 13, at which time the condition of the Y. M. C. A. will be fully explained and plans for the future clearly outlined.

the office of Commissioner of the General Land Office at the urgent solicitation of Secretary Garfield who knew personally his sterling character and exceptional ability. He did not seek that office. He accepted his present position only upon the earnest solicitation of the President. He did not seek it. It meant nothing to him but hard work and poor pay. He gave up a large and lucrative law practice simply at the call of patriotic duty. Is it possible that he at once became the scoundrel and arch enemy of the people that he has been depicted in the public press? I cannot believe it. If he has used his high office to advance special interests, if he has sacrificed the people for private or personal gain, let it be shown. If, on the other hand, the people have been deceived and he has been unjustly accused that should be shown not only that justice may be done him but that the confidence of the public in the honesty and integrity of its public servants may be restored and strengthened and the animus of the attacks disclosed.

"Much has been said regarding his views on conservation of our national resources. This I shall not discuss at this time. I believe that it will be shown that his purposes and objects are substantially the same as those of the most radical conservationist and the main difference is but one of methods. Assuredly there is room for an honest difference of opinion as to how our great natural resources can best be conserved.

I may agree with some of the views of those who criticise the policies, the methods and the proposals of the Secretary, but he is honest and patriotic in his views I have not the slightest doubt. One thing is sure, we have had several years of talk about conservation, we have had platitude piled high upon platitude in the most dramatic way but no specific or detailed plan for conservation has been presented.

"The present secretary of the interior instead of drawing glittering generalities has made specific recommendations regarding all the important conservation problems so far as they come within the jurisdiction of his Department and has prepared and submitted to the careful scrutiny of the people and of Congress legislation that he considers necessary to effect the objects so much desired by all. He recommends the repeal of the timber and stone laws and the disposal of the timber separate from the soil. He recommends that coal deposits be separated from the title to the surface and that the coal be disposed of separate from the land by sale or lease. He recommends legislation to prevent the acquisition of power sites on the public domain by private persons or corporations with the view of monopolizing or adversely controlling them against public interest. He has withdrawn all locations known to possess power possibilities on appropriated lands outside of national forests over which his Department has no jurisdiction and he recommends that Congress pass a measure authorizing the classification of lands capable of being used for water power development and to permit of their disposal through the interior department upon substantially the following conditions:

Mr. Jones then gave a synopsis of seven of the most important recommendations made by Mr. Ballinger, and continuing his remarks, said:

"Conscious of purity of his motives and the rectitude of his intentions the Secretary of the Interior welcomes this investigation. I have presented the resolution calling for this investigation, not in his behalf or in antagonism of any other official of the Government, but in the interests of good administration and in order that the people may know the facts of this deplorable controversy and for the judgement thereon of an impartial body.

"This resolution has been drawn directing the committee to investigate along certain and specific lines and then authority is given to it to make further investigation that it may deem desirable. The intention is to secure the broadest and most thorough investigation. If the resolution can be made broader and more rigid, and a more thorough investigation secured, it should be done and will be welcomed by the Secretary. He wants no whitewash; he wants no partial investigation; he wants it rigid, thorough, complete and conducted without fear or favor."

GRAND JUROR FINED $50

Litchfield, Ill., Jan. 4.—John. O. Drake of Zanesville township, one of the grand jurymen of the October term of the Litchfield city court was reprimanded yesterday by the court over which Judge Paul McWilliam presides, and fined $50 and costs, amounting in all to $76, on a charge of contempt of court. Drake was arrested on a writ of attachment sworn out by the States Attorney H. C. Stuttle, who charged that Drake had approached Dr. Strange, a dentist of Litchfield, whose case was being investigated by the grand jury on a charge of rape, and asked Strange to give him money.

It has frequently occurred in the past that the preceedings of the grand jury have leaked out and the impending indictments were noised about before they had been returned to the court. This has in many cases hindered justice and the officers have been endeavoring to stop it. The officers declare if the practice is not stopped a more severe fine than in the present case and a jail sentence will be imposed.

It is a dangerous thing to take a cough medicine containing opiates that merely stifle your cough instead of curing it. Foley's Honey and Tar loosens and cures the cough and expels the poisonous germs, thus preventing pneumonia and consumption. Refuse substitutes and take only the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package.—J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

RAILROAD DID CREDIT BUSINESS

Perhaps the only railroad in this part of the country that ever did a credit business was the old Champaign, Havana & Western, nee Decatur & Monticello, now the Champaign branch of the Illinois Central.

It was during the regime of "Barney" Salisbury, the old time conductor and chief factotum of the "jack line," as the cinder ballast line between Decatur and the Champaign county capital was one facetitiously called that the credit business was done.

In the old days the railroads were not high and mighty as in the present day. They were infant industries then, but not coddled as certain infant industries have been in later days.

Would Hold the Train.

In other words the railroads were looking for business in the olden days. It is even said that "the Barney," as Conductor Salisbury's train was familiarly called, ran on any old schedule that pleased the passengers, and if you could give Mr. Salisbury a reasonable assurance of five passengers for a certain hour of the day, he would hold the train for you. Imagine a conductor doing this in this later day, when most trains would not wait for the governor of the state unless paid to do so.

Money wasn't any too plentiful in the days when Salisbury ran into Decatur which was something over twenty years ago. Especially was this true just before harvesting and so many of Mr. Salisbury's good friends at White Heath, Monticello, Oreana, Argenta and other towns east of here, and they were all friends in fact, for a jovial soul was he, were often in sore extremeties for a ride to town.

Lost Only Sixty Cents.

This gave birth to Mr. Salisbury's credit business. "Out of money, Barney," was all they would have to say, and "Barney" would get out his little book and make an entry of "So and So, 50 cents, Cisco to Decatur," or whatever it might be. This was done by Mr. Salisbury for years and it is told by one if his old engineers that he never lost but 60 cents and that was on a young fellow that "lit out" of Monticello with the law on his trail, and went west to grow up with the country. Mr. Salisbury carried him of course, primarily for his dead father's sake, but the boy didn't retaliate in kind.

THE NIGHT RIDERS AT THE GRAND.

The Night Riders are without a doubt the feature attraction of the season, showing the scenes and nights of terror of the planters in Tennessee and Kentucky. Prof. Browning gives a very vivid descriptive lecture throughout which is plainly understood by every one, even to the little ones. Messrs. Hood and Browning, who were with the state militia and posse which made these thrilling captures of those desperate men who took the law into their own hands, realized the dangers that they were in, their lives being in jeopardy every day, until the leaders of the Night Riders were lodged in the Jackson jail, not until then were they safe. Then seeing a good opportunity to show the world at large these thrilling crimes, they went to the enormous expense of having these pictures taken, urging some of the principles to pose for them in some of the scenes reproducing those terrible nights of terror.

The management tried to secure their services for one week, owing to other future engagements which they are compelled to fulfill they can only show Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Jan. 6, 7 and 8. Watch the Night Riders' parade at 7 o'clock.

RELIEF CARAVAN.

Salt Lake City, Jan. 5.—The relief caravan now traveling with supplies toward the eastbound passenger train on the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad, marooned in the desert near Caliente, Nev., since last Sunday night, will doubtless reach the train before morning. About 150 passengers are on the marooned train. From Caliente to the stalled train and back to Barclay or Acoma, is the route which the relief party must travel. The distance is about 25 miles. Railway officials have arranged for the transfer of passengers at both Barclay and Acoma, whence they will be brought to Salt Lake City by rail.

S.S.S. CURES CHRONIC ULCERS

There is nothing that causes more worry and discomfort than a chronic, festering ulcer. As it lingers, slowly eating into the tissues and surrounding flesh, and by its tendency to grow worse in every way, it suggests the possibility of being cancerous in its nature. Efforts to heal the ulcer by means of salves, washes, lotions, etc., always result in failure, because such treatment can have no possible effect on the blood where the impurities and morbid matters form, and are carried thorugh the circulation to the place, to keep it open, irritated and diseased. The impurities in the blood must be removed before the healing process can begin. S. S. S. goes to the fountain-head of the trouble, and drives out the germ-producing poisons and morbid impurities which keep the ulcer open. Then as this rich, purified blood is carried to the diseased place the healing commences, the inflammation gradually leaves, the discharge ceases, new tissue and healthy flesh are formed, and soon the sore is permanently cured because the source has been destroyed. S. S. S. does not make a surface cure, but by supplying the blood with healthful, tissue-building properties it begins at the bottom and causes the flesh at the diseased spot to firmly and permanently knit together, and the place is left sound and well. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

DIABETES

From late figures the hope of recovery under the new emollient treatment seems to be about as follows:

In people of sixty and over results are quite uniform, probably nine-tenths recovering. While at fifty and over a large majority of all cases yield to the treatment, below fifty and approaching forty the disease gets more stubborn, and between thirty and forty the percentage is not high—probably not much over half yielding.

Under thirty the percentage is less and in children recoveries have been very few and most of those were obtained with the aid of skilled physicians forcing nutrition, with alkaline treatment to present formation of acetons.

TAG DAY IN OTHER CITIES

Contributions for Charity Have Been Large—Record of Yonkers, N. Y., Is Noted.

Tag day not only obtains money for worthy objects, but it receives it from a very much larger number than in any other way. This is one of the most pleasant features in connection with Tag day. In Rochester about 70,000 bought tags, in Yonkers 50,000, in Gloversville 20,000, Cohoes 10,000, in Geneva 7,000, in Fulton 6,000.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

The pupils of the Industrial school were given their annual treat on New Years' Day at the rooms of the Woman's Christian Association. A program of songs and recitations was followed by an entertaining talk by Mrs Drach, who led the children into the new year of 1910 with the thought that each of its 365 days were before them in which they were to grow in honor, purity, truthfulness and the character that shows God in the life. For 38 years Miss Catlin has devoted herself to this school, preparing scores of girls to help themselves by the use of the needle, and the teaching them habits of neatness, order, good behavior and the truths of a higher life. But on this 39th anniversary, she and Mrs. Tomlin, another long time worker, were unable to be present and the duty of serving devolved upon others, who willingly gave themselves to it and provided a pleasant entertainment. The girls were treated to candy, oranges, apples and cake kindly donated by friends, and each received a new apron made in the school.

EXTREME CRUELTY ADMINISTERED DOG

Canine is Dipped in Kerosene and Set on Fire by Unknown Party—Dog Ignites Hay in Barn—Police Looking For Offender.

One of the most extreme cruelties that has been administered to an animal in Jacksonville for some time happened Wednesday when an unknown person saturated a dog with coal oil and then applied a match. The canine ran to the residence of Mrs. R. W. Mills on West College avenue, where its yelps attracted the attention of a member of the household, who tried to catch it. The dog ran into the barn and up into the loft, where it set a quantity of hay on fire. It was chased from the barn and the blaze was extinguished with little damage.

The chief of police was notified and Officer Packard was sent out and dispatched the animal, which was frightfully burn.

The person who did the act no doubt wished to get rid of the animal, but some more sane method could have been used. Such cruelty to animals has not been heard of in this city for some time and if the person who committed the deed is found he will no doubt be punished to the full extent of the law.

Thomas C. McMillan of Chicago Will Give Address Friday Evening.

The civic committee of the Woman's club announces that the Hon. Thomas C. McMillan of Chicago will speak before the club Friday evening, Jan. 7, at Academy hall.

Mr. McMillan is well known in Jacksonville, as he served for many years as a trustee of Illinois college. He is clerk of the United States district court and is serving at present as president of the Men's Equal Suffrage league of Chicago. Mr. McMillan writes that he is not radical upon the subject of equal suffrage, but is in the student frame of mind, looking for the best form of government.

Because of the wide interest in this subject at the present time, the club wishes to open this meeting to the public. An especially cordial invitation is extended to Mr. McMillan's old friends. An opportunity will be given at the close of the lecture, during the social hour, for friends and all interested to meet Mr. McMillan personally. On account of the evening services held during the week of prayer the lecture will not begin until 8:15.

From a notice in another column it will be seen that the Ransdell Book Store will soon be removed from the present location to the Dowd building on West State street, next east of the Journal office. The firm has been located at the present stand for more than six years and the proprietors have found a change necessary in order to accommodate their growing business. The Ransdell book store has constantly increased in public favor since its establishment and there is every reason to believe that there will be a still larger growth in the days to come. The purpose of the proprietors has been to carry such complete lines as belong to the stock of a first class book store and for that reason the wants of the public have been well met.

FORMER RESIDENT SHARES IN BEQUEST

Mrs. Amanda Clark Schermerhorn Remembered by Mr. Marks, the Millionaire Shoe Man of Chicago, to the Extent of Over $10,000.

Mr. E. W. Marks, millionaire shoe man of Chicago, who died last week, left a million dollars to be distributed, a large portion of which was divided among the past and present employes of the firm. Among those who were beneficiaries of his requests were Mrs. Amanda Clark Schermerhorn, wife of Charles Schermerhorn, and a sister of Mrs. Irvin Stevehson, east of Jacksonville, well known here. She has left the sum of $10,000 and a third interest in an 18 acre tract of land lying near Plainfield, Ill. Mrs. Schermerhorn was one of the former employes who shared in his large gift. She had been a bookkeeper in the establishment for twenty-two years. So thoughtful was Mr. Marks in his gifts that during his last illness he gave his nurse a remembrance of $2,000 and had also remembered a former nurse of five years ago when he had a severe spell of sickness to the extent of $5,000. His bequests to charity were many, including a fund for an orphans' home in Chicago.

LIMBURGER CHEESE.

Eminent poets and prose writers alike have vied with each other in paying tribute to fragrant "lavender, mints, savory, marjoram, and the marigold that goes to bed with the sun" but it remained for an everyday newspaper man writing in the colums of the Baltimore Sun to give due credit to the odoriferous cheese. Unlike the flowers, limburger has a value aside from its odor. Perhaps it would be more correct to say that it has a value in spite of its effect on the olfactories. In any event, it appears that limburger has some mighty virtues which are just beginning to gain recognition they deserve. It has long been held that limburger is valuable as a preservative, as a stimulant, and as an antiseptic. Of late it has been discovered that it contains certain properties that gives it an important place as a scientific food. Some of its more important effects are thus hinted at by the writer in the Baltimore paper:

"The man who eats it daily is seldom a misanthrope and never an invalid. It seems to exert not only a benign and soothing influence upon the stomach, liver, humerus, aorta, veriform appendix and other vital organs, but also a clarifying effect upon the higher cerebral centers. One can always tell the habitual limburgerundian by his ruddy cheeks, his stocky frame and his unusual affability. He is more fit than the average man, for any conceivable human enterprise, and he is well aware of it. In science, commerce, art and the metaphysics he is an original thinker, and an accomplished disputer; and even if his task in life be but some humble thing, such as playing the clarinet or driving a beer wagon, he always does that thing better than the next man. All great musicians love limburger."

Hail limburger! Any article of good capable of producing such results deserves a high place in the estimation of mankind. Heretofore it has, to some extent, been in bad odor by reason of certain other properties which it possesses which have acted as a deterrent in the legimate exploitation of its many excellent qualities, but these should be permitted to interfere no longer. Its smell is only incidental at best, and they say one can actually get used to it—just as one can get used to being hung!

In pitcher William Mitchell, Cleveland fans think that the Naps have landed a classy southpaw. Mitchell was bought from the San Antonio club.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

At 6 o'clock Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Lambert, were married Miss Helen Maie Lambert and Lieutenant John Charles Fremont Tillson, Jr., a few friends besides the relatives witnessing the ceremony. It was a charming occasion, characterized by a quiet simplicity, though filled with beauty and dignity. The fine old home where the bride has been reared from infancy has long been a center of social and educational life in the community and was most attractive last evening. In the drawing room blossomed pink Killarney roses; daffodils and yellow tulips gave to the library the yellow glow of the United States cavalry colors, while the broad hall and east rooms were draped with the American flag entwined with southern smilax.

The musical numbers given preceding the ceremony were Protestation by Norris with violin obligato sung by Mrs. Louise Short, a violin solo, Swan Song and Elia's Dream, from Lohengrin, by Miss Irene Thompson and on the approach of the bridal party the bridal chorus from Lohengrin was sung by Miss Ruth Leach, a cousin of the bride. Miss Nelle Smith of Beardstown, Miss Susan Brown and Miss Katherin Rogerson, accompanied by Miss Thompson on the violin. The bride's attendants, Miss Judith Cary Waller, a cousin of the bride, Miss Alice Wadsworth, Miss Eleanor Capps, Miss Millicent Rowe, Miss Martha Capps and Miss Lucia Lippincott, descended the stairs carrying ribbons and in the drawing room formed an aisle through which the bridal party passed to the library, where the marriage service was read. Miss Katherine Greenleaf, the maid of honor, was followed by Mary Palmer and Lambert Clifford, scattering rose petals in the pathway of the bride, who entered on her father's arm. At the south end of the library they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Edward Clifford, and Dr. Julian S. Wadsworth of Brockton, Mass., an uncle of the bride, who with much impressiveness read the full church service.

After receiving congratulations the wedding party and guests repaired to the dining room where supper was served. A very pretty feature was here introduced, Lieut. Tillson's sabre being pressed into an entirely new service, that of cutting the bride's cake. The gifts of fortune discovered were a dime falling to Miss Katherine Rogerson, the darning needle to Miss Irene Thompson, the penny to Miss Judith Waller, the pen to Miss Helen Moore and the ring to H. K. Chenowith.

The bride was gowned in white satin messaline entraine, trimmed with duchess and old rose point lace, worn by her mother at her own wedding thirty-five years ago. The veil was of tulle and the bride carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley and white hyacinths. The maid of honor, Miss Greenleaf, wore white crepe de chene and carried daffodils. Lieutenant Tillson wore the regulation military full dress uniform. To the regret of all, Lieutenant Owen S. Albright of the 13th U. S. Infantry, who was to have been best man, was unable to obtain leave of absence.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Lambert and a granddaughter of the late Dr. William F. Short. By her bouyant disposition and radiant happy manner, she has endeared herself to a large circle of friends by whom she will be greatly missed. Surely Lieutenant Tillson has stolen one of Jacksonville's favorite flowers.

Lieut. John C. F. Tillson, Jr., is the only son of Colonel and Mrs. J. C. F. Tillson of Washington, D. C., who have recently returned from the Philippines and are now stationed at the War college in Washington. He is of dignified bearing with charming personality. He passed his early years at West Point then joined the cavalry service at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., where he received his commission as lieutenant of the 14th U. S. cavalry. He is now stationed with his troops at Walla Walla, Wash., but will join his regiment at Camp Stolsenberg, Philippine Islands, on March 1.

The guests from out of the city were Colonel and Mrs. J. C. F. Tillson, Washington, D. C.; Lieutenant and Mrs. Robert D. Goodwin, Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clifford, Evanston; Mr. Edward Laning Lambert, Wilmington, Del.; Captain and Mrs. John McCauley Palmer, Fort Leavenworth, Kan.; Dr. and Mrs. John Duke Waller and Misses Judith and Katherine Waller, Oak Park; Dr. and Mrs. Julian Sturtevant Wadsworth, Brockton, Mass.; Hon. and Mrs. Edward Laning, Mr. and Mrs. Calet Barrett Laning and Mr. and Mrs. John Laning, Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Carrollton; Miss Helen Moore, Raymond, and ex-Governor Richard Yates and wife, and Miss Catherine Yates, Springfield; Miss Ina Pitner, Bloomington.

The marriage reception was held at Fairview, the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Pitner, cousins of the bride.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Tillson will be at home after the first of May at Camp Stolsenberg, Philippine Islands.

Marriage Reception.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Pitner gave the marriage reception at Fairview, their beautiful suburban home, and many were the guests who enjoyed this brilliant event. The guests were received by Dr. and Mrs. Pitner, Lieutenant and Mrs. Tillson, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lambert, Colonel and Mrs. J. F. C. Tillson, Mrs. Joan McCauley Palmer, Mrs. Robert D. Goodwin, Dr. and Mrs. Julian Wadsworth.

It was one of those delightful social affairs which have made the hospitality of Fairview famous and all the rooms of the spacious house were at the disposal of the company, the most charming informality being notable. The lighting was from countless candles and the decorations were exquisite. In the parlors there was a very graceful arrangement of mistletoe and in the library scarlet carnations furnished a brilliant addition to the beauty of the scene. The shaded candelabra and the yellow tinted flowers in the dining room gave a color effect there, suggestive of cavalry yellow. The catering was by Vickery & Merrigan. In the hallway a huge bunch of pink roses sent out fragrance and beauty and throughout all the house there was that effectiveness in decoration which is a part of the artistic. Above the entrance doorway floated a splendid American flag, which certainly had a fitting place in the decorations for the wedding reception of an army man and his bride. Before the hour of going the bride from her commanding post on the stairway landing cast down the bridal bouquet and in a pretty scene of merry tumult it fell to the lot of Miss Katherine Greenleaf.

Those assisting during the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clifford, Mrs. Louise Short, Mrs. J. D. Waller, Judge and Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Capps, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs Gates Strawn, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Capps, Judge and Mrs. E. P. Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Waddell, General and Mrs. B. G. Grierson, Misses Mary Upham, Ina Pitner, Katherine Greenleaf, Nelle Smith, Susan Brown, Katherine Rogerson, Irene Thompson, Judith and Katherine Waller, Alice Wadsworth, Eleanor Capps, Martha Capps, Lucia Lippincott and Millicent Rowe.

SIGNS OF AN INTERURBAN

J. H. McFarlane Has Gang of Men Unloading Ties—Officials Will Meet Morgan County Commissioners.

Arrangements are being made in detail to commence work on the interurban line between Jacksonville and Springfield, as soon as the weather will permit, which will relieve all doubts in the minds of the sceptics in regard to the possibilities of such a road.

The road has secured a franchise granting the right of way through Sangamon county, outside of Springfield, and a number of officials are expected to arrive in the city today for the purpose of meeting the commissioners of Morgan county relative to right away, etc. Although nothing definite is known, it is believed that the outcome of the meeting will be satisfactory to all concerned. The farmers over the county are unanimous in favoring the building of the road and public sentiment is also in favor of promoting the proposition to the utmost.

The contract for the construction of the road bed has been placed with the J. H. McFarlane Construction company of this city, who say that as soon as possible a force of men sufficient to complete the work in two months will be put to work. Mr. McFarlane has a gang of men busy at the present time in unloading a number of car loads of ties near the Jacksonville packing plant and is only waiting for the steel rails and fair weather, before active operations will be commenced.

BASEBALL MEETING

Final Touches Will be Put on the New League of Illinois and Iowa Cities Today—Meeting at Pacific Hotel—Banquet in Evening.

The Jacksonville Baseball association has evrything in readiness for the league meeting which will convene this morning at 10 o'clock at the Pacific hotel. Representatives are expected from East St. Louis, Decatur, Aurora, Joliet, Clinton, Moline and Belleville. Dr. Childs arrived in the city last night from Decatur and is in the best of spirits. He is one of the most enthusiastic backers of the new league and is pushing it in every detail.

The committee on sale of tickets has been successful and all but eight tickets have been sold for the banquet which will be held at the Pacific at 8 o'clock, when E. E. Crabtree will act as toastmaster. Those who have not procured their tickets will have to do so early today that seats may be reserved for them. The tickets can be procured either from Bernard Gause or George F. Schmalz.

The morning session will consist of reports from the committee on constitution and by-laws and the committee on membership. In the afternoon further reports will be heard and the organization perfected and the name announced of the new league.

ARGUMENT HEARD.

The case of Rachel Cherry of Paris, Mo., against John Cherry for divorce and $50,000 alimony, has been submitted to the St. Louis court of appeals after arguments in which Attorney General Major represented the defendant. Mrs. Cherry lost the case in the circuit court of Montgomery county and appealed. The defense maintains that no marriage ever took place, but Mrs. Cherry claims that there was a common law contract entered into by herself and Mr. Cherry at Chicago, Jan. 1, 1905.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

DEATH RECORD

Markillie.

M. L. Markillie received word yesterday of the death of his aunt, Mrs. Jane Markillie, who passed away at her home in Winchester Tuesday morning. Mrs. Markillie fell a short time ago and suffered a broken hip. She was about 80 years of age. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Helen Markillie, with whom she made her home. Deceased was the wife of the late William H. Markillie and was at one time a resident of Lynnville.

Mr. Markillie expects to go to Winchester today to attend the funeral which will be held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Kincaid cemetery.

Clark.

Mrs. M. L. Markillie received word Wednesday of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Helen Clark, aged 65 years, who passed away at her home in Winchester Tuesday afternoon, after an illness with pneumonia.

She is survived by her husband, William Clark, one son, Charles, and two daughters, Mrs. Nellie Winklehack of Springfield and one daughter at home.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Winchester, where interment will be made.

Garrison.

Mrs. Clara E. Garrison, aged 44 years, died at 2 o'clock this (Thursday) morning at Our Savior's hospital, after a lingering illness. She had been at the hospital but a few days. Deceased was preceded in death by her husband. She resided on North Main street.

INTERESTED IN HEALTH FARM.

Final papers passed yesterday for the purchase of 1,000 acres of land south of Post-Lavaca and the establishment there of a sanitarium to be known as "Health Farm." Behind the proposition are C. A. Burton and A. J. Hoover of Jacksonville, Ill., and Dr. K. L. Mayers of St. Louis, Mo. They intend investing more than $100,000 in buildings, besides making arrangements for a tent colony. Floors and steel frames will be constructed for the tents which will be put up as the colony grows.

Part of the land will be cultivated, but the greater part of it will be turned into a great natural park with driveways and other attractions. —San Antonio Express.

BRIDE AND GROOM ESCORTED TO TRAIN.

Members of the bridal party of the Tillson-Lambert wedding, after the reception at the Pitner home, went to the Elks' club room, chaperoned by Miss Ina Pitner, where the time was spent in playing and singing until the Wabash train arrived, which was 1:30. They went to the station in a bus and when the bride and groom arrived they met them with red torches and these were kept burning until the train came and then with a procession they were escorted to the Pullman. Posters were put all over their baggage and pasted over the cars, both inside and outside, bearing the inscription: "Helen and John. Were Married Last Night. Bound for the Philippine Islands. Help 'em On."

HOGS SOLD HIGH.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Hogs sold here today at $8.60, which with the exception of the summer of 1882, is the highest average price recorded since the civil war. A few of the best grades sold at $8.75. Exceptionally light receipts of live hogs at leading western packing centers today, following a long period of similar scarcity, was the moving factor advance.

FEMALE FOOTPAD.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—A female footpad again made her appearance here today when a well dressed woman, assisted by a man, held up and robbed Ernest Yaegel of $8.50 and battered him up. According to Yaegel he was standing on a corner when accosted by a woman, who drew a revolver from a muff and ordered him to hold up his hands. A man appeared, searched him and knocked him down. Both disappeared.

PRAYER MEETING SERVICE.

Services for the week of prayer will be held at Northminster church this evening and Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Eltzholtz.

DIED SUDDENLY.

IRRIGATION IN THE WEST.

After all it appears that the heavy cost of irrigating the desert lands of the west does not end the outlay, as the public has been led to believe. Now the cry is for drainage. Recent reports state that large tracts originally brought under cultivation have been abandoned or are fit only for wet pasturage. It is estimated that there are 200,000 acres in Utah alone in need of drainage. Presumably this work will have to be done by the owners of the land, and not by the government but the fact it needs to be done at all is a fact likely to lessen, somewhat, the attraction of the new lands.

Are You Sure Your Kidneys Are Well?

Many rheumatic attacks are due to uric acid in the blood. But the duty of the kidneys is to remove all uric acid from the blood. Its presence there shows the kidneys are inactive.

Don't dally with "uric acid solvents." You might go on till doomsday with them, but until you cure the kidneys you will never get well. Doan's Kidney Pills not only remove uric acid, but cure the kidneys and then all danger from uric acid is ended. Here is Jacksonville testimony to prove.

W. C. Osborne, 455 S. Clay Ave., Jacksonville, Ill., says: "For about two years I suffered with attacks of rheumatism. My back pained me for days at a time and I felt very lame. My kidneys also gave me considerable trouble. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of by parties who had used them, le recently procured a supply at Armstrong's drug store. Since taking this remedy. I have felt much better and I have been convinced of its beneficial effect in cases of backache and rheumatism. I have no hesitation in allowing the above statement to be published."

NEW YEAR LETTER TO SCHOOL TEACHERS

State Superintendent Blair Gives Advice to Pedagogues Relative to School Life and Rules Are Good Both In and Out of School Life.

State Superintendent F. G. Blair has issued a New Year letter to the school teachers of the state, as follows. Although New Year's resolutions may seem somewhat stale and unprofitable, it can do us no harm at such a time to take a serious look backward and forward over our work. It may even do us good to set down the thoughts and feelings aroused by such a survey. At any rate here are the results of such reflections by one teacher:

"Whether I am in the work for a year or a lifetime, let me do it with all my might. Thus it becomes for me not a job but an opportunity for a career.

In all my work and relations let me be simple and direct and natural. The assumed, the artificial ever hinders rather than helps.

"Let me take my work neither too seriously not too lightly. The one destroys my nerves, my sleep, my joy in the work and profits me nothing; the other, though it may delight for a season in the end loses me the respect of my pupils and my people.

"Whatever of energy, of enthusiasm, of sympathy, of patience I have, belongs in a large measure to my children. Therefore, I must allow no personal or social activities to rob me of what belongs to them.

"I must live my own life think my own thoughts and be my own self. I must do more for my own sake in order that I may do more for others. I will therefore deny myself no opportunity for enlargement or growth or wholesome pleasure but I will not allow any passing whim or needless pleasure to cost me the good will and confidence of my people.

"Let me be worthy to have and to hold the respect of all my pupils. This I crave and must have, though their love I cannot claim and may not receive. Love may increase but its absence must destroy my sympathy and respect for every boy and girl.

"I can hardly hope to deal justly and wisely with every issue. Therefore, let me have the grace and the courage to acknowledge my mistake and to right it.

"Let me respect and be loyal to my official superiors without servility or loss of self respect. Let me criticize and be criticized without being embittered. Let me work with and for my associates rejoicing in their strength and their victories.

"I shall not work for a mere wage but I cannot work without it. It will not subtract from my life in order to add to my bank account but I will ever increase my peace and comfort of mind.

"And now having thought my thought and set it down, no further good can come from it, so let me lay it away lest others reading may take note that I have either protested too much or performed too little."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is not a common, every-day cough mixture. It is a meritorious remedy for all the troublesome and dangerous complications resulting from cold in the head, throat, chest or lungs. Sold by all dealers.

IS CRITICALLY ILL.

Misses Hattie and Helen Isabelle Massey of East State street received word yesterday from the bedside of their brother, George W. Massey, assistant cashier of the Farmers' State bank of Ashland, who has been so critically ill for the past eight weeks that his condition was slightly improved, although he is still quite weak. His long and severe illness was serious from the start and for a time baffled the skill of his physicians.

Some of the leading physicians of Springfield of the medical professions was summoned, accompanied by a trained nurse from St. John's hospital, and they together with his home physician, Dr. Darwin Galley, made a heroic fight for the life of the sufferer. His many friends are legion in hoping to hear encouraging reports from his bedside.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOLS—1910

Let there be increased interest along the lines for 1910. One leading thought should be not only numbers, but more thoroughness in our work to be done. A system that tends to home preparation and some definite knowledge of each lesson and of the Bible as a book in general is what is needed in every school. This can best be had by preparing questions on each, say five on the lesson and the same on the bible in general. Answers to be prepared at home and given to the teacher of the respective classes in writing if possible, but if not, then orally. What special method should be pursued with the written answers after reaching the school is left for it to decide; an examination of the questions is desirable. These ten questions might occupy a part of time in the review at the class of the school in such manner as seems best. This plan of questions has the sanction of the best Sunday school workers in the world, such as S. S. Glines, Marion Laurence Mr. Gilbert and Prof. H. H. Hamill and many in our own city.

Again, it unifies the work, all the schools having something in common. As it now is they are getting but little knowledge of the bible as a book, simply from the want of a proper system of study. This plan is not to be regarded as a lesson help but rather to make effective those you now have by increasing home study which is very important and to excite a laudable ambition to excel among the different schools. Now we know there are many of them in the county that favor something of this kind, but the cost seems in the way. Now we will promise that each school shall be provided with these questions in quantities needed as soon as possible after $10.00 has been raised in money or good pledges for each quarter of the year and placed in the hands of Charles Hopper of Jacksonville. If said amount is not provided for quite soon the money will be returned to the giver. We advise that money be paid if convenient instead of pledges as much the better way.

The smaller schools can afford to pay 50 cents a quarter for these questions, we think and the larger schools something more. Whatever is done it should be arranged as soon as possible. 1910 is upon us, hence no time should be lost. This small sum should facilitate matters. The money we know can be raised if there is a will to act. Sunday school association has given me the honor for the third time of filling of the training of the Morgan county S. S. work, the most important, we think, of all others, for it has to do with methods, but I can do nothing availing without the support of the school. If there is no work in this line needed, dispence with the office. If there is make it manifest. The S. S. lack thoroughness as one important feature in what is wanting and one good reason for it is no adequate system to meet the want, we here present one, its utility is easily seen. It produces better lesson preparation by home study and will effect definite information on each lesson and also on the bible as a book, which now is lacking; this cannot be denied. Let us illustrate this by the first lesson of the New Year; the title being, "John, the forerunner of Jesus." The lessons for the year are all in the system for the year.

1—What were the names of Johns father and mother?

2—What was peculiar about his birth?

3—What was John's special message to the people?

4—Give three reasons for his success.

5—What can you say as to his dress and food?

6—The bible is derived from what Latin word and its meaning?

7—Into what two divisions is it divided?

8—How many books in each?

9—What special position did Mathew hold when called by the Savior and why unpopular?

10—Why was Jesus so called?

11—What one of the minor prophets and in what chapter and verse did he foretell where Jesus should be born?

12—Which way, how far, and for what is Bethlehem distinguished?

Now a certain school class or a pupil has made a careful study of the questions for the year 1910, another school class or pupil has not, other things being about equal, what will be the difference as to definite things being known about the lessons and the bible at the end of the year? Now we do not mean that they have studied nothing but the question for the lesson preparation, but when going to the recitation there are certain facts they do not know and they have learned them at home where father, mother, brothers and sisters live and often all have been interested in the questions and answers, where without some definite plan, the lesson would never have even been read over during the week. Many a teacher comes before a class of this sort, that has made no preparation and he or she stands and lectures the class, give good advice, but few questions are asked and the bell rings, 20 minutes gone and the class goes home with no definite information. Will it be so at the homes where their questions are hung up, provided first, it will depend in a general sense on the head or heads of the school, but more especially on the teacher as to home study. I feel as certain that the teacher in almost every case if due effort is made and the qualification not wanting that success will follow for I have tried, not in Jacksonville to any extent, however. Their questions are not to be left in the school room, but taken out of the newspaper, parted on a card board and hung on the wall and a few copies done the same way in the churches or recitation rooms for reference in having a part of the general review given to them. If I were teacher, I think I could develop their benefits better than I could write it. Now let us hear from the schools. Please speak a good word through the press if you are for us and the plan. Will other county and city papers copy this sketch. All of which we prayfully submit.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Bowel Tonic For Old Folks Free

No matter how sound and healthy old people are they still suffer with their bowels. The machinery of the system doesn't work as it did when they were young and active. But while you can't restore youth you can help age to live more pleasantly.

That a laxative is needed every little while by people as they get around fifty and beyond, there is no doubt, but it is important which laxative is taken. Old people, women and all, except those who are in the prime of life, should avoid anything that gives a shock to the system and which at best is but a temporary expedient. Among these are pills and cathartic tablets, salts and purgative waters. They are too strong and only do temporary good. Not only that, but they really bind the bowels next day.

What you want is something that will regulate the bowels and again get them in the habit of performing a certain function at a certain time, while at the same time toning and strengthening the muscles of the stomach and bowels. Such a remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if you have never used it let the doctor send you a sample bottle free of charge. In this way you can try it without cost. All druggists sell it at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and those who have used it will continue to buy it. It is pleasant to take, very effective and very economical as a household remedy, as all the family can use it. But Dr. Caldwell is eager to have all readers unacquainted with it to send for a free sample.

Thousands of old people and heads of families are never without it, for in this way they cure and avoid constipation, liver trouble, indigestion, sour stomach, sick headache, sleepiness after eating, belching and similar stomach, liver and bowel disturbances. Mrs. Tillie Homan, 404 Wautauga street, Knoxville, Tenn., and T. H. Marshall, Nail, Okla., as well as thousands of others, attribute much of their present good health to this grand laxative tonic.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, K.909 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

The Water Route to Health

The secret of longevity is not so much the knowledge of how to cure disease as in how to prevent it.

Thirty years ago the sanity of a man, who attempted to sell water, would have been questioned. Today millions of people buy it and are greateful for the priviledge.

THE GRAVEL SPRINGS WATER is an absolutely pure Mineral Water, delivered in thoroughly sterilized containers and is the cheapest insurance for protection against malaria, typhoid fevers, dysentery, diarrohea and many other ills that are directly due to impure drinking water.

Give this Table Water a good test in your home, the expense is so small and the benefit so great, you cannot afford to take the chances on questionable water.

SHIPPERS WANT NEW RULES

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Many prominent merchants and manufactureers were on hand today when the Illinois railroad and warehouse commission began its hearing on classification matters. The large shippers have combined with a view of inducing the commision to issuing a new rule with regard to shipments which are unclaimed. It is desired that the railroads be compelled to notify the shippers whenever the consignee fails to call for a shipment. It is claimed that it often happens that unclaimed shipments are sold for freight charge without the consignor knowing that the dilivery of the goods was not completed.

WERE MARRIED WHEN SLAVES

Galesburg Pays Honor to Aged Couple on Occasion of Their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Galesburg people showed unusual honor to an aged colored couple of that city last week. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cook had been married fifty years and on the occasion of the golden anniversary the citizens presented Cook with a gold headed ebony cane and his wife with a fine oak rocker. A golden wedding anniversary is unusual among colored folk.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook were married near Hannibal, Mo., Dec. 27, 1859, while both of them were slaves, and while they lived on different plantations, they managed to be happy and see a great deal of each other, until in 1863, when with the excitement of the war on, and slaves running away from their masters every day, Mr. Cook took his young wife and, in company with a number of other negroes from neighboring plantations, made his way into the land of the free.

Mr. Cook by working for neighbors at odd times had managed to save up a little money and was the owner of a horse. In company with the other runaway slaves he made his way on horseback to West Quincy and there he paid a ferryman $20 to take himself and his wife across the river into Quincy and into freedom. From Quincy Mr. and Mrs. Cook went by easy stages to Galesburg, where they have resided ever since.

DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Some Advice Against the Use of Harsh Purgatives and Physics.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with waste matter and causes accumulation of gases which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system and at best only produces temporary relief. The repeated use of such treatments causes chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has almost, if not fatal results.

We have a pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of its great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case where it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies. We urge you to try them at our entire risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing, regulative influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects, and they may be taken at any time without inconvenience.

Rexall Orderlies overcome the drugging habit and safely remedy constipation and associate ailments, whether acute or chronic, except in surgical cases. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price, 36 tablets 25 cents, and 12 tablets 10 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Jacksonville only at our store.—The Rexall Store. Lee P. Allcott.

Grain Letter.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Wheat—The situation for the movement is purely a domestic affair and depends upon the amount of wheat to be sold between now and May 1. Stocks at leading centers are small. Flour stocks at leading points are 200,000 barrels under thirty days ago and 26,000 over last year. We are inclined to look for good scalping markets until such time as it is determined whether the $1.25 holding policy now in effect in the northwest and elsewhere is to be continued.

Corn—Corn eased with wheat at the opening on profit taking. Later prices were advanced to new ground for July, while May lagged somewhat. Country ideas were said to be for higher station prices. The Ohio state report, which was bullish, if born out in Indiana, will no doubt receive consideration at an early date and be reflected in the future market. We lock for a scalping market, but prefer sales of May on bulge and purchases of July on breaks.

Oats—Strong with investment buying and short covering. There were good profit taking sales on the advance. Cash prices are firmer and demand in general improved. We have had a fair advance and short sales on a further upturn would prove profitable, wait for a good decline and buy.

Provisions—Small primary receipts, short covering and late buying by bulls were responsible for a futher marked advance. January stuff was especially strong. There has been good selling for profits on the advance and while we may see higher prices, do not believe in making purchases on the advance.

BOOTLEGGERS FINED

Lafe Rice and Fred Griswold go to the Peoria Workhouse and Mrs. Dalrymple is Given a Fine of $100 and Costs.

The federal court at Springfield put in another busy day Wednesday and among the cases were those of Lafe Rice, Fred Griswold and Mrs. Angeline Dalrymple, all of Jacksonville, charged with bootlegging.

Rice was convicted and sentenced to six months work in the Peoria workhouse and Griswold will also spend two months in the same toil shop.

Mrs. Dalrymple, who was also up for dispensing liquor without a government tax, was found guilty. She denied the charge, which was that she kept a boarding house of bad repute and served bottled beer to all who called, if they were willing to pay the price. She denied the alleged reputation of the house and also the selling of the liquor. After a long session the jurymen gave in a verdict of guilty and a fine of $100 was imposed.

In sentencing Rice, Judge Humphrey took occasion to score him severely and in no uncertain tones, of his disobedience of the law.

He has been appointed manager of the branch at Santa Maria, a small place near San Luis Obispo. Hewitt Matthems is the manager at the latter place and Wallace was with him for some years before engaging in the book business.

Mr. McAfee is well known in Jacksonville and was an ex-member of the class of 1904 of Illinois college and was prominent in social circles.
